THE WEEK IN FULTON

NEWS OF THE EAST END GLEANED FOR THE DISPATCH.

DEATH OF MR. DALY.

That Section-Affecting Scenes at His Funeral-Personal and Other

No death in recent years has caused more sorrow in Fulton than that of Mr. John J. Daly, which occurred last Sunday She will rather sudden death was a shock to the ness, in which he commanded a large trade. He was taken suddenly ill, and Mand Porter Gunn, will continue upon the even tenor of its way.

There will be several changes in the maller churches, and the disposition had gained a firm hold, and despite the attention he received he continued to grew worse until death relieved him from all suffering. Shortly before the end came, with his eyes full of deepest affection, he spoke of these whom he was to leave behind, and of his supreme faith in the mercy of the Great Master. Mr. Daly was a man close to the pe

The company is composed of thirty people, and wherever they have sung this season they have made a great hit. The cast is composed of good singers and funny comedians, and the chorus is well trained, and according to the press and public of the East and West, the entire company is a most pleasing one.

The company will change its bill three times each week, and at popular prices large crowds will no doubt have the pleasure of enjoying popular operas.

Among these in the company are Montjoy Walker, whose home is in this city; Joseph Williams, Gilbert Clayton, Warwick Clayton, Charles Phillips, Miss Carollata Gilman, Miss Josephine Kirkwood, Miss Minnie Layton, and Miss Hetta

The distance is twenty miles, but only ten will have to be constructed, as the line will connect with the Holston Valley railroad, whose western terminus is Bidders for the construction of the road have been advertised for, and President Dull is quoted as saying that the work will be commenced as early as possible. The company is establishing a large lumber-mill in Shady Valley, with a ca-pacity of 160,000 feet per lay. The timber n that section is of a very fine quality, and practically without limit. For this reason it is plain that the new enterprise will be of great significance to Brisment of important woodworking plants CAPTAIN HARRY SHEEN.

Miss Florence M. Campbell, who for seven years was a valuable member of Suffolk College, and one of the most prominent and successful Christian work-ers in the State, was recently offered a position in the Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg. She has declined the offer and will remain in Kentucky, where she has been teaching for the past year.
Miss Campbell's friends in Suffolk, who are legion, would be glad to have her back in Virginia, as she is a lady of most wonderful influence in religious work and an able and accomplished tea Professor H. A. Miller, of Oberlin, O., who has been engaged as organist of the Christian church and director of the min-tary band, is expected to arrive here to-morrow, and, being highly recommended, will doubtless prove a valuable accession to Suffolk's musical circles.

Miss Sallie Whitfield, daughter of the late Rev. John G. Whitfield, died in Enfield, N. C., on Tuesday, August 22, 1829, after a protracted illness. Miss Whitfield was a cousin of the Misses Finney of Suffolk, and had many friends and acquaintances in this section.
